ELM STREET Concert Garden

Corner Elm St., and Seventh Ave.

RUDOLPH HINCHER, Prop'tr Thursday, June 13th, 1889.

The finest garden in the tri-cities.

"Black as the Ace of Spades!" That's what we said of the paint when we moved into this house. "Mercy, ma!" said Belle, my eldest daughter; "we'll never be able to get it clean." "Nothing like trying," said I; "go to the nearest grocer's, Belle, and tell him to sell you the best soap he has." Back she came, her face beaming. "Here's something better than Soap, ma; its Gold Dust Washing Powder. Don't you remember how auntie praised it up? Now we'll see if what she said proves true is our case." Well it did, you'd better believe. I honestly think white chalk would make a black mark on that paint now. Our motto is, "If at first you don't succeed "-be you will if you use Gold Dust Washing Powder.

Gold Dust Washing Powder is sold by all grocers.
